The Word of Life website is a nonprofit information and giving site. By using the Word of Life website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

Collection of your Personal Information

Word of Life may collect personally identifiable information, such as your name. If you purchase Word of Life's products and services, we collect billing and credit card information. This information is used to complete the purchase transaction. Word of Life may also collect anonymous demographic information, which is not unique to you, such as your age. We may gather additional personal or non-personal information in the future.

Information about your computer hardware and software may be automatically collected by Word of Life. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. This information is used for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Word of Life website.

Please keep in mind that if you directly disclose personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data through Word of Life's public message boards, this information may be collected and used by others.

Word of Life encourages you to review the privacy statements of websites you choose to link to from Word of Life so that you can understand how those websites collect, use and share your information. Word of Life is not responsible for the privacy statements or other content on websites outside of the Word of Life websites or apps.

Use of your Personal Information

Word of Life collects and uses your personal information to operate its website(s) and deliver the services you have requested.

Word of Life may also use your personally identifiable information to inform you of other products or services available from Word of Life and its affiliates. Word of Life may also contact you via surveys to conduct research about your opinion of current services or of potential new services that may be offered.

Word of Life does not sell, rent or lease its customer lists to third parties.

Word of Life may, from time to time, contact you on behalf of external business partners about a particular offering that may be of interest to you. In those cases, your unique personally identifiable information (e-mail, name, address, telephone number) is not transferred to the third party. Word of Life may share data with trusted partners to help perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to Word of Life, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

Word of Life may keep track of the websites and pages our users visit within Word of Life, in order to determine what Word of Life services are the most popular. This data is used to deliver customized content and advertising within Word of Life to customers whose behavior indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

Word of Life will disclose your personal information, without notice, only if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on Word of Life or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of Word of Life; and, (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of Word of Life, or the public.

Use of Cookies

The Word of Life website may use "cookies" to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you, and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the Web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize Word of Life pages, or register with Word of Life site or services, a cookie helps Word of Life to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same Word of Life website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the Word of Life features that you customized.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Word of Life services or websites you visit.

Security of your Personal Information

Word of Life secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure.

Children Under Thirteen

Word of Life does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under the age of thirteen. If you are under the age of thirteen, you must ask your parent or guardian for permission to use this website.
